Hello!

“Sing to Him a new song; play skillfully and shout for joy” Psalm 33:3. I am very blessed to be here at Chinese Christian Schools. In my last year of high school, I felt God calling me to become a music educator. This was later confirmed when I went to a Christian conference called Urbana. I have a passion in teaching music because music is a channel in which the gospel may be preached through song. It is also a way in which God’s character may be shown to those who learn or listen to a musical piece. Through teaching, I can educate younger generations to worship God with skill as well as encourage them to become the best that they can be in music, other academics, citizenship, and/or other personal goals. Not only can I use music to teach academic concepts, but music itself can have a way of touching the soul and bringing a source of joy, comfort, and hope. My hope is that God may use me to minister to the students, parents, and faculty here at CCS.
