Hello!

What a blessing it is to be able to serve God in a ministry that has the ability to educate and change lives forever. God's plans are not my own. Following His prompting, the path that was set before me has provided opportunities for God to reveal His perfect plan. From public speaking to patient education, lectures, and homeschooling God provided the tools necessary to succeed in His ministry here at Chinese Christian Schools.

I believe God has called upon me to share His divine and magnificent Creation with students through a scientific education.

Pulling from my background knowledge, I joyfully share God's Creation from how He created the universe to our fearfully and wonderfully made bodies.

On a personal note. I have been married for over 25 years of which we were blessed with two children. After homeschooling for the first 8-9 years, our children graduated from Chinese Christian Schools in 2008 & 2009, respectively. I look forward to sharing the joy of the Lord with your child as they look to further their understanding in God's plan for their lives from a scientific perspective.
