Hello!

The Lord had given me the privilege of teaching Kindergarten Sunday School since high school. I wanted to teach these children as well as others on a daily basis. I wanted to serve the Lord in this school, which is a ministry of my local church.

Children are a blessing to me. I have seen how they have grown both physically and spiritually. For example, I have seen them grow in wanting to make the right decisions.

I am blessed to know that I can make a difference in so many lives. In addition, I am able to share our school ministry with everyone I meet. In fact, a few families had shared that my enthusiasm regarding CCS is one of the reasons they chose to enroll their child in our school.
