Hello!

I enjoy teaching and working with children. God has given me a heart for them and for wanting to find ways to make learning fun and as creative as possible. I love sharing what I read to children and asking them to think deeper about the themes that may stand out in the stories.

It is a blessing to serve and to be a part of the teaching staff at CCS.

My own two children (now grown) graduated from Christian schools. I am thankful for how the school helped in preparing them for college and in building their Christian character.

I love working at CCS because of the nurturing school environment for students, the encouraging parents, the Moms in Touch, and the staff working together.
