Hello!

I am grateful to serve as the vice-principal for the San Leandro campus. By partnering with parents, my desire is to nurture our students both at school and at home. I also work closely with teachers to support students in the classroom.

I believe in whole-child education. It is my goal to equip students academically, spiritually, physically, and emotionally. God has given me an encouraging spirit and a sensitive heart. One of my burdens is to help under-achieved students reach their potentials.
