Hello!

God has given me a patient heart to work with young children. I started serving at children's Sunday school when I was in college. I enjoy sharing God's love with them and seeing their growth in God's words. After I graduated, I was looking for an occupation that I could share God's love with young children without any restrictions. In 2008, God has opened the door for me to work at CCS. Working at CCS has given me a great opportunity to serve Him by teaching His children academically.
