Hello!

My name is Mrs. Jane Woo. I studied at UC Berkeley (go bears!), and currently reside in Alameda with my husband (whom your middle schooler may know as Mr. Woo). We do not have any children yet, but are content with the hundreds we have at CCS until the Lord's timing.

As a teacher, I am: a lead quilter when we want to tie in our language arts with math and art, an actress as I read from the language arts textbook, a cheerleader when overcoming a hurdle in the latest math concept, a travel agent when we study other countries, a security guard who creates a safe haven, a nurse when someone gets a cut, an urban and regional planner out on the playground - just to name a few.

I look forward to walking down the hall each morning, with my Starbucks in hand, amused in wonder of what my students will humor me with that particular day. I, in return, will carry out my teaching philosophy of not always giving him the fish but teaching him how to fish. (As they say in Pokemon, "gotta catch 'em all!")

Thank you for allowing CCS to partner with you in educating your child. Your prayers and support are greatly appreciated. It's going to be a wonderful year!
