Hello!

God began preparing me to work at CCS when I was in high school. In high school, I fell in love with the language of Spanish and knew that I could share my passion of learning with others. At the same time, God instilled in me a desire to transform lives through the personal knowledge and love of Jesus Christ and to change the future through education.

The Lord has certainly blessed me with a fantastic group of students who are attentive and personally motivated to learn. They have been very kind and thoughtful which has made my teaching experience an unforgettable chapter of my life. An additional blessing from CCS is the staff who are genuinely in love with Jesus, and their love shines.
