Hello!

I am continually blessed to experience how teaching is not only my job, but my hobby and my area of giftedness. I have learned what it really means to be dedicated to my teaching: a whole lot of responsibility but a whole lot of enjoyment too. Being called to join CCS and work with younger children after years of educating adults both in China and the USA is tough and challenging. But, I have confidence that with the help of my CCS team, it is going to be a great experience and very rewarding for my professional and my spiritual growth.
