Hello!

I believe that it was no accident that God led me to Chinese Christian Schools. In fact, I believe that His divine plan started with my attendance as a student at Chinese Christian Schools. I have always thanked God for my education at Chinese Christian Schools. This institution played a very important part in my early life, and I have always had a compelling interest in seeing this school grow for our Lord.

I feel that my main areas of strength are in public speaking and in my organizational, interpersonal, and leadership skills. These traits have been invaluable in helping me deal with staff members. Much of my organizational and leadership skills have come from my legal background.

I am more of a task person than a visionary. That is why the vice-principal position is extremely well-suited for me. I enjoy receiving new assignments that increase the penumbra of my knowledge and experience.
