Hello!

To be honest, I had never really given much thought to teaching. I have always desired action and adventure; I am a thrill-seeker at heart. I had envisioned that I would be a fireman, or perhaps an paramedic. Instead God brought me here, and I find that I have traded one type of thrill for another. There is something about shaping lives through learning that is beautiful to the point of ineffable. I honestly am glad I am not a fireman!
