Hello!

My journey to become a teacher began when I was little. My mom had always worked in schools and she always hoped one day I would become a teacher. As I grew up, God continued to open doors for me, one after another, slowly guiding me to his calling for me to become a teacher. I had always loved being around kids and slowly I began to see how much of an influence a teacher could have on the lives of their students and what a great opportunity it was to minister and show God's love to them.

The opportunity to serve at CCS came out of no where and I definitely feel that God has called me away from San Diego, back up to the Bay Area in order to serve him here. He has allowed me to become part of a ministry that freely teaches students about the gospel and is centered around teaching students not only knowledge, but also how to become disciples of Christ. I am so blessed to be a part of this ministry and I hope to continue growing in Christ as I lead His little children on toward him.
