Hello!

I had always felt that God had gifted me with the ability to work with children. It was while I was working as an accountant that I felt God leading me to full time Christian work as a teacher. I was reluctant to leave my job but I kept feeling God tugging at my heart to go to Chinese Christian Schools to teach. Being an accountant, I was very practical. I told the Lord that if my new teacher's salary would meet all of my financial needs (e.g. rent, car payments, etc.), I would go ahead and accept this change. (I was still depending on myself and not trusting in Him to see me through this). When I saw that my new salary met all of my financial needs to the dollar, I went ahead and switched jobs. I have never regretted my decision. God always knows what is best for His children even if we do not see it right away!

He has given me a great sense of humor, so that I am able to teach and get the students to laugh too! God has also given me the ability to break things down to the students' level so that they can understand the concepts.
