Hello!

God has given me the ability to speak before a group with little fear, unless they are adults. I find it rather easy to illustrate and explain concepts to students. I pay attention to details and the administrative side of teaching, because I find security in structure and completeness.

I felt God was preparing me to do this full-time in teaching. This Christian school is where I want to serve, because I feel that God has placed me in a very special place where I can use my abilities to influence others for Him.

The students seem to open up to me regarding their struggles both academically and spiritually. I have been blessed to see students grow academically, and it has been a privilege to be a part of that process. Students have also come to know Christ as Savior or have received assurance of their faith. I have also seen the ministry of the school influence and encourage entire families to take steps toward God.
