Hello!

God has given me the ability to learn quickly, remember what I read, and then to impart the information to the students. God has given me compassion for the average learner.

I wanted to be involved in ministry as well as with my children's lives. I was given the opportunity to tutor math at Chinese Christian Schools. It was then that I felt God calling me to teach in this Christian school. I wanted to see lives changed as a result of learning about God and the world around us.
