Hello!

It is a blessing to be able to teach art in CCS. Through the interview process, God has shown me that He has planned each step of my life. I really enjoy creating art work and doing different kinds of projects with students. Teaching My goal is to teach students new techniques and skills in order to express themselves through art and at the same time appreciate art more in general are my goal. By showing students that there is always another way to see things and hopefully through the study of art, students can learn to be open-minded and not to give up easily in life.
