Hello!

God played an intricate role in calling me to work at CCS. During my years in college, I studied Philosophy and was planning to go into Law. Yet, after all my studying for the LSAT's and applications to Law schools, I was blessed to attend InterVarsity's (a college Christian ministry) Urbana 06, an International Christian convention. God taught me that no matter what vocation I was to be a part of, His will should always be a part of it. From that point on, I debated whether I should accept my Law school letters or move on to something else. During a joint mission with Benny Fong from CBC, I was presented with an opportunity to work at CCS. With a lot of prayer, I finally worked up the courage to apply and eventually received a position. Without Him I wouldn't be where I am today.

God has blessed me every day I am at CCS. The times spent with the kids I teach as well as the people I work with have been a continuous testimony in my life. I can only hope and pray that the time that I spend with each student, parent or staff can be used for God and His will.
